

I actually have a problem with the Do Not Call Law now. I constantly still receive calls from telemarketers etc at my home and cell during the week and weekends. I don't feel this law has even been that effective.

I definitely feel the law should stand as it is, however, there need to be some more rules or procedures in protecting us from still receiving the calls continuously at home!

Thank you!

Alicia Stott